Bureau of Health Services

POLICY

All recipients of services must be informed of the identities of service providers.

APPLICABILITY

This policy applies to Local Health Department and Regional Office Clinic personnel.

PURPOSE

To ensure clients can readily identify providers.

PROCEDURE

Each health department facility is required to have in public view for each clinic session an appropriate and up-to-date roster of direct health providers who staff the clinic.

All direct health providers and clerical personnel are expected to wear name tags with the individual's name and professional identification (if applicable) clearly visible.
